The Children's web site can be found at www.decaturfumc.org and then click on children. The purpose of this web site is to keep parents, children, visitors and the community informed of what is going on in our ministry. On the web site, you can find links and resources for children, parents, and volunteers. There is also photos from past events. The children will love seeing themselves on line and often download these photos for themselves or you may download these photos for your family. I will be adding more things as time goes on.

From now on, only those children with signed permission will be included in photos on our website. Names and specific personal information will not be used for security reasons. I will make frequent updates to the site, and hope that you will visit often!

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to ask!
